

ST105 Sanctification and Ecclesiology
Dallas Theological Seminary
Updated Version

Final Exam

1. Describe the role of the church in God's program. Be sure to address the beginning of the church and the church's relation to both Old and New Testaments.
2. Distinguish between the universal and the local church. As individual believers, what are our responsibilities toward each?
3. What are the marks of a true church? What then is the role of the parachurch?
4. Describe the offices of the New Testament church and the role of ordination.
5. Explain the three major models of church government including the strengths and weaknesses of each. Which model do you prefer? Why?
6. According to Jonathan Edwards' The End for which God Created the World, what is God's purpose for humanity? How does that purpose coincide with our joy?
7. Using Scripture, defend the idea that sanctification is an ongoing process.
8. Why is it appropriate to emphasize our relationships with other people, particularly within the Christian community, when talking about sanctification?
9. In the process of sanctification, why must change of heart change be emphasized over change of behavior? How does God change our hearts?
10. What is the relationship between spiritual disciplines and our delight in God?
